

In Memory of... John Heath

John fought for our country and he fought for his life.
John lost the battle for his life on April 17, 2007.
We were proud to know him and be a small part of his life.
God Bless his family and friends who loved him.
John will be buried at Arlington National Cemetery in June.

The Veteran Love and Appreciation Team